Shalom Aronskind, a citizen of Palestine, was registered as a third year pharmacy student at the University of Florence in September 1938¹.

Born in Odessa in 1917 to Dan and Haia Cohen, Shalom and his family emigrated to Tel Aviv not later than 1925, the year in which Shalom enrolled at elementary school. His father worked as an agricultural commodities broker. Shalom attended the scientific section of the Herzliya gymnasium in Jaffa graduating in 1936 with high grades².

Shalom enrolled in the Faculty of Pharmacy in Florence in the academic year 1936-37. In February 1936 he successfully passed the Italian language examination required for admission³. In Florence, Shalom lived first in Via dei Benci with the Orefici family and later in Via Ghibellina with the Taddei family. Shalom was still enrolled at the university at the end of June in 1939,⁴ but his studies in Italy were interrupted subsequently and he returned to Palestine. He replaced his father Dan as a partner in the Palestine Fruit and Vegetable Selling Company «Bursa»⁵.

Shalom married Rachel Shosany; he changed his surname to Aharony and died in 2007 at Ramat-Hasharon (Israel)⁶.
